BAI Rules on Advertising and Teleshopping

(Daily and Hourly Limits)

JULY 2010

1. Introduction

Section 43(1) of the Broadcasting Act, 2009 requires the Broadcasting Authority of Ireland (BAI) to prepare, and from time to time as occasion requires, revise rules with respect to:-

- (a) the total daily times that shall be allowed for the transmission of advertisements and teleshopping material on a broadcasting service, in respect of a contract under Part 6,
- (b) the maximum period that shall be allowed in any given hour for the transmission of advertisements and teleshopping material (within the meaning of section 42(8)) on such a broadcasting service, and the Authority may make different such rules with respect to different classes of broadcasting service.

The BAI Rules on Advertising and Teleshopping (Daily and Hourly Limits) have been developed in accordance with this statutory obligation.

2. Jurisdiction

The BAI Rules Advertising and Teleshopping (Daily and Hourly Limits) apply to certain radio and television broadcasters within the jurisdiction of the Republic of Ireland. In practical terms, this includes commercial radio and television services, community radio and television services as well as institutional and temporary radio services. The rules do not apply to services provided by the public service broadcasters RTÉ or to TG4 nor do they apply to other services commonly received in this country but licensed in the United Kingdom or in other jurisdictions.

3. Definitions

Advertising

Images with or without sound and radio announcements broadcast whether in return for payment or for similar consideration or broadcast for self-promotional purposes by a public or private undertaking or natural person in connection with a trade, business, craft or profession in order to promote the supply of products or services, including immovable property, rights and obligations, in return for payment.

Teleshopping

A direct offer broadcast to the public with a view to the sale, purchase, rental or supply of products or the provision of services, including immovable property, rights and obligations, in return for payment.
